Holistic Business Development Mentoring

Often, it is challenging to stand in the place where we KNOW our true passion in life, know how our business or practice will serve our life's passion, and where to begin this process of living and serving from the heart.

The most important first step is to be able to see and feel, in the very core of your being, the vision of what your life and your world will look like if you devote yourself to following the path led by this vision. The amazing inspiration that comes from clearly defining the service that you were born to provide to the world through your gifts is non-stoppable and absolutely served by the forces of the universe.

Getting in touch with your inner knowing automatically creates a sacred connection with your spirit, with your true work, and with all others in the world. This vision that you create thru these sacred connections will draw your perfect customers to you, and will make your outreach program genuine and natural. Incorporating the authentic spirit of you, your gifts and your guiding principles brings marketing and promotion of your services and products into the realm of sharing and serving...much more palatable for most of us...and much more successful!

Many years ago before I started Dancing Hearts, when I was still trying to bring clarity to my life's work, the one concept that I KNEW had merit, and would eventually lead me to starting my business and to eventually share the wisdom gathered along the way was:

"if I do what I love with a passion...a way to be compensated will be revealed..."

And today, I believe this now more than ever! Today, I know that what we are passionate about is also what we are gifted at and it is also what other people feel driven to explore, just like us. When we began this journey. This passion is like a laser beam lighting the way for others to find us so that we can share the gifts of our journey with them.

If working with a mentor one-on-one appeals to you, I would be honored and pleased to serve. There are several programs that I offer, and you may switch between them at any time.

- Discover your true vision for your life.
 - Create your Inspired Vision, Long Term Goal and Guiding Principles
 - Learn to work with your limiting beliefs and archetypal patterns as Teachers.
 - Have everything you need for the next stage of goal setting, inspired planning, promotion and marketing.
- Get to know exactly who your perfect customer is...and why it is you they are looking for!
 - Create your Inspired Marketing Model, designed to put your plan into action.
 - Develop your M.A.P. [My Inspired Plan] to chart the course toward your vision and keep you on track.
